Minister's notes

Dear friends,

This week we join with congregations across the Uniting Church (and other denominations) in recognising a Day of Mourning, on the Sunday before Australia Day, to reflect on and lament the effects of invasion and colonisation on Australia's First Peoples. Along with this news sheet, we are providing a copy of the Statement from the Heart which you are encouraged to read. Our service (at 10am) has been put together by a few members of the Study Group which by zoom last year. We have been resourced by the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island Christian Congress (with whom the Uniting Church is in covenant), and by Common Grace.

I encourage you to join in worship through zoom and phones if you can. Given the pressure on the hospital system, minimising the spread of COVID through large gatherings is important. For some people, it will be important for overall wellbeing to still come to the church, and that's OK – there will be a small group present for face-to-face worship, and the zoom service will be 'broadcast' from there. If you do come to the church, please also be aware that there are traffic restrictions to work around on High Street, though these are mostly around the corner where the on-ramp to the Nepean Highway is.

God was present in this land long before colonisation. As the preamble to the Uniting Church Constitution states: "[T]he Spirit was already in the land revealing God to the people through law, custom and ceremony. The same love and grace that was finally and fully revealed in Jesus Christ sustained the First Peoples and gave them particular insights into God's ways." This Sunday we listen, mourn, pray and worship together.

Peace and grace,

David

Alex Sangster's Induction Service

The Induction of Rev Alexandra Sangster as Minister of St Kilda congregation will be on Friday February 4 at 7.30 pm. The service will be at 163 Chapel Set St Kilda and also will be broadcast through Zoom. The link will be sent out closer to the date.

Lenten Bible Studies

This year, the season of Lent begins on Wednesday 2 March (Ash Wednesday). There are several Bible Study groups who are considering working through a six-session series, "the Call to Discipleship", by Rev Dr Chris Walker (formerly a National Consultant for the Uniting Church). The Wednesday night study group will meet fortnightly for this from 9 February, and the Thursday night group is considering doing similarly. If there is enough interest it may be possible to run a daytime group as well (for which a leader would be required). Please let David know if you are interested in a daytime study group through Lent.

Donations of Linen and Towels

Rona Russell is currently collecting linen and towels for seasonal fruit-pickers.

Items can be given to Rona directly or dropped off at the church office, weekdays between 9:30 and 12:30.
