The Back Page

The Spring Term Begins

I'm back from my long service leave trip to France, and delighted to come back to some good spring weather (although the forecast says it's changeable!) As the school term commences, we have a pet blessing, a church picnic, and later a church camp to look forward to.

While in France, I enjoyed seeing some wonderful museums and the beautiful churches and cathedrals (sadly not counting the devastated Notre Dame), and enjoyed meeting people and taking in the countryside. In Paris, I was impressed by seeing so many electric cars being charged along the side of the road, and scooters and bikes all mixed up among the traffic – though personally I stuck with walking and the metro!

Today we have a Bible reading from the first chapter of 2 Timothy. 2 Timothy takes the form of a letter from the apostle Paul to Timothy, who is a young person and a faithful follower of Christ (see also 1 Timothy 4:12, “let no-one despise your youth, but set the believers an example...”). Timothy is encouraged to continue in his faithful witness, even in the face of difficulties and discouragements, holding fast to the faith and love of Jesus with the help of the Holy Spirit. The passage in the letter to Timothy also refers to the witness and faith of mothers and grandmothers, so overall can be taken as an encouragement for talking and listening in faith across generations. On the day that I flew back in from France, there were large climate demonstrations around the world organised by young people. These are starting points for conversations and actions across generations in which we can reflect our witness of God's love for the world and for our neighbours.

Does it take huge quantities of faith to have such conversations, or to take actions for the sake of our neighbours and the world God loves? In the gospel reading today the disciples ask for more faith. Jesus responds that even a little faith, like a mustard seed, is enough. We can step out with a little faith in a big God who loves us and who has gracious faith in us.

God's peace,
David
